Alice Hegan Rice

7(2)

1444 ST. JAMES COURT
LOUISVILLE, KY.

June 28-1930

Dearest Julie:

We are passing through New York in two weeks from now, and are hoping very much that you will be in town. We get to the Gramercy Park Hotel, Sunday evening the (13th) and stay until Thursday afternoon when we start for Maine. When can you come to us for luncheon or dinner? The evening will probably be preferable as there is a roof garden at the Hotel where we can find a breeze. We have Monday evening taken, but Tues. or Wednesday will be see right.

Up to the last few days we Digital Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.

1542.004

have had heavenly weather, and even this morning my little garden, where I am writing this, is fresh and lovely with rosy glow petunias, and celestial larkspur, and two white butterflies that compose a patriotic color scheme in honor of the coming 4th of July!

It has been so long since we heard from you that I am eager for news, and more eager to see you. What a furious pow wow we will have if you are only in town the week we are. I am ever so much better, and have gotten back to my old weight. Celis shoulder is almost well and he is playing golf for the first time in a year, so we hope he will pick up his lost pounds.

This is just a "chaser"; I will save the rest until I see you.

Devotedly always

Aine —

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library