

29 Broad St., Stamford, Conn.
Feb. 27th, 1901

Dear Miss Tarbell:—

It seems to me now that the best time for me to come to you wd be in the last week of April sometime. I must not let my visits slip over,
and that will give me
a week at home after I come back from Boston.
I am a house keeper, you see, and harbor the delusion of my kind—

that my household will resolve into primrose chess in my absence. I have rivers of towels on the floor, dried-up plants, gingham aprons waiting
on the table and laundry packages unopened!

I must begin now
to manufacture more bed children for Mr. McClure.
I hope that the end of April will not be inconvenient.

Very cordially yours,
Josephine Jackson