Mrs. Roosevelt:

Mrs. Roosevelt - the grand person - who mustered us all into line for the work of the Mobilization of Human Needs. - said one day in trying to explain what was behind the effort of these great building agencies that really after all, isn't it just old-fashioned neighborliness. Is it not a fact that even the money we raise, whatever our technique or formula, the affection for our machinery, loses out if it is not given in the spirit of neighborliness. Now I believe that. I believe that what makes this great movement alive, what makes it so much of a burning interest in the communities where it really succeeds is the spirit of the good neighbor. Lucky are we today in this land that in the highest of places we have a woman who embodies that spirit as she does,

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library a woman who wherever she senses need, wherever there is a chance of easing

Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Lib