WELLESLEY COLLEGE.

OFFICE OF MARY CASWELL,
SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT
TEACHERS' REGISTRY,
STUDENTS' AID,
GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE.

WELLESLEY, MASS October 22, 1909

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
141 East 25th St.,
New York City.

My dear Madam:

President Hazard instructs me to send the enclosed statistics referring to the occupation of graduates after leaving Wellesley College. I submit these estimates with much diffidence, since for various reasons absolute accuracy is scarcely possible under the curcumstances. The point of the greatest value to be gained from these estimates perhaps is that of the comparative numbers choosing the various occupations indicated.

Under separate cover I send further at the request of President Hazard, a copy of her book, The Narragansett Friends' Meeting, a copy of the review of the ten years of her administration, and a booklet, The Wellesley Choir, also prepared by President Hazard and giving the history of a very interesting organization of the College of which Miss Hazard is the founder. To these are added the current calendar and a copy of the President's Report for 1908.

Trusting that you will let me know if I may be of service at any time, I remain,

Very truly yours
Mary Caswell
