

May 8, 1931

Dear Mr. Graeve:

Thank you for your note. I am mighty glad that the Eleanor Roosevelt has come out to your liking.

You ask when we shall discuss another article? As soon as you wish, I shall be in town next week and your Secretary could arrange by the telephone. Week after next I shall be out of town.

Cordially yours

Mr. Oscar Graeve
Butterick Building
New York City