The World

October 21, 1905

Editors' Rooms New York

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Your letter reached me several days before Dr. Schlesinger had arranged to see me here in New York, and I have delayed replying until I could talk over my outline with him. I enclose a copy of it which you need not trouble to return---I am sorry it is so tattered. Some changes may of course yet be made. In particular, chs. 5 and 6 are likely to be telescoped, and ch. 20 split in two. The first draft of my book is almost finished.

It will give me great pleasure to talk our volumes over when you return to town. Please let me know and I shall arrange to come over to your apartment at some hour convenient to you.

Sincerely Yours,

Allan Nevins

Digital Image 2009: The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library