Wilhelma - Jan - 15/25
Medina N.Y.

My dearest Ida Tarbell
It has cheered me to think you can come but I am sorry to know you've been ill, for I am certain you tax all the strength you have, to its utmost limit.
I am replying at once to let us plan the easiest way for you. Could you come here earlier than the 15? and go from

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library

here to Rochester; this is truly a house of rest large bed; your own bath, breakfast in bed if - and as there are six "spare rooms," you could come any time, the N.Y. sleeper lands you here about 7 A.M. If you can't do this, tell me what time to meet you and where and I'll come in a car, a warm taxi limousine. It is about an hour & 3/4 from Rochester here anyway you do. R. R. Trolley or wo-tor. We'll have dinner here and you could stay in bed the 16th I think until 9-30. There's a train through here eleven fifteen A.M. which I think makes connect in Rochester for

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944. Allegheny College Pelletier Library

3

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library

4 the East - I'll look this up. The morning mail brought me a delightful letter from David Fairchild from Paris. He is a rare man and has so many sides to him, we've seen the most interesting one that loves quiet, simplicity and naturalness. Yours

With affection

Emeline Weld Kennan

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library