Crawford N.J. May 14.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Mrs. Breed, the President of our Anti-Steel-Trap League, will be in New York May 16th 17th 18th and 19th, and would like to see you and me during that time - at any hour that may be most convenient for you - She and other friends in New York City want to start an Anti-steel trap campaign in New York in the fall, and I think they want suggestions from us which I do not feel very capable of making - But at least we can talk with Mrs. Breed for a short while - that is, I can, and I hope that you too, will be able to find a little time for this -

Mrs. Breed will be with

Mrs. Charles Noel Edge at 136 East 67th St., after to-morrow (Tuesday) and you can either call her up and set a time for us to meet (she will set the place) or you can write me on enclosed card what time will be possible for you during those three days, and I will advise her - All of us will make our time suit yours -

Cordially yours

Lucy Furman
