Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Thank you so much for your kind, encouraging letter, and for the notice made from your lectures on biography. I have just dipped into them, and am sure they will mean much to me. I am assuming that "no hurry" means I may keep them two or three weeks (especially as I'm caught up in a series of interviews with a member of the family from a distance). Then, when I return them, I'll certainly write about them as you ask.

With warmest thanks, and all good wishes for you, I am,

Very sincerely,
Virginia Roderick.
