

C O P Y

Miss Viola Roseboro'
998 Carroll Street
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Monday.

Dear Editor:

I have just got the dear, dear book. My friend, what a wonder it is, and I can't tell you how I thank you for it. I know how rare are the qualities that have kept it from so many pitfalls. The Bert that comes out in it, so authentic, alive and as convincing as unique - though he is too good to be true in a wicked world - he is a being who should be left shining in such a strange record, and, made with the grace and wisdom that is your contribution, I feel that he will shine on a long, long time. I am awkward because I am feeling so much.

Affectionately,

Viola R.