Mr. Gordon Abbott
Old Colony Trust Company
17 Court Street
Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. Abbott:

I think I said to you when you were good enough to talk with me in November about Owen D. Young that I should want you to read whatever I quoted directly from that talk.

The inclosed gives all too briefly - I am seriously cramped in space - about what I understood you to have told Mr. Coffin in 1912 when he asked your judgment on Young.

Will you not look it over and be good enough to make any change or suggestion that occurs to you. I am pre-supposing, you see, that you do not object to being quoted.

It was a pleasure to meet you in Boston, dear Mr. Abbott, and to have had a moments glimpse of Mrs. Abbott. I thoroughly appreciate your courtesy and if you will look over these paragraphs I shall be under still greater obligation to you.

Very sincerely yours
