Dear Mr. Tulley

As you may have noticed the Philadelphia Record - also certain correspondents of the American Magaine - is charging me with having been "flim-flammed" by Mitten Management, and of course, there goes with this charge the "flim-flamming" of P. R. T. men by Mitten Management. It all seems to be hinged on the suit brought by Buhl.

I find that I must make some answer - prepare an answer that the Magazine can use. I have been wondering if anything had been broadcasted in reply to Buhl's suit. I wish you would let me know, dear Mr. Tulley, what you are saying if anything. I have the revised version of the Mitten Plan for collective consideration put out in September 1929. Is there anything later?

I am right in supposing, am I not, that the re-organization was fully explaimed and debated in the Departmental Committees, as well as in the General Committees? That is, that before the financial organization was put into effect full opportunity was given to the men for consideration.

I should like to know, too, the make-up of the Board of Directors at present.

You understand, dear Mr. Tulley, that I am personally convinced of the soundness of the plan but that to meet the criticisms that are coming into the magazines, because of the article, I must have the last word.

Will you not kindly then tell me just how you are meeting the Records attack and the Buhl suit. With all good wishes.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. H. G. Tulley
