Miss Ida Minerva Tarbell,
120 E. 19th St.,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

The Patriot's conception of democracy as a living faith is re-affirmed on a coast-to-coast radio presentation by NBC on Lincoln's Birthday... during which the impassioned pleas for freedom of Edmund Burke, Patrick Henry, Thomas Jefferson, Daniel Webster, John Stuart Mill, Louis Kossuth, and Abraham Lincoln take on new meaning.

Lincoln's immortal "Gettysburg Address" delivered by Charles Laughton, the distinguished English actor, in an overseas broadcast from London is the climax of the program and bears testimony to the bond uniting two great English-speaking nations in a common heritage of freedom.

In the belief that you may desire to have a copy of the excerpts from these famous orations, we take pleasure in sending you the radio script used during this nationwide broadcast.

Yours sincerely,

Clay Morgan
