My dear Miss Tarbell;

I appreciate every word of your very kind letter and I feel that you could render no greater service to the Women's News Service, Inc., than to say just the thing you have said. If we can say that you will be one of our Contributors it will mean worlds to us.

I am attaching a memo which I am sending to stock holders. This will give you an idea of the McClure proposition to us. Mr. Brainard told me that you are going to cover the conference for them. How I wish we had the credit of having put over this deal! I feel that there is no reason why we should not be able to market the productions of our best women writers. I expect to do this as soon as we get started.

Again thanking you, I am

Cordially yours,

Ida Clyde Clarke
