Letter: Albert A. Boyden to Ida M. Tarbell

Boyden, Albert A.

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/18797

This item is in the public domain.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
Dear Stelvin,

I am characteristically thought to understand the wine?

I'd like to learn to be a thought as you - that's very I'm going win to this what you were very that last afternoon the. How much we think but about the Prussianism in all of us that we've got to fight.

Prussianism is opposite why apparit materialism and motherlain, just plain selfishness - did it a profit really return selfishness - motherlain in one side - and dearness, cleanliness and the brotherhood of men in the other.

You're one of the few people I know who have always fought in the right side - and I want you to know that if I saw or anything in the right side, you will be to blame! There's nothing in the game that serum anyway.
I mean, I wish there were...
Now am I known going in their charity - this Sir always perhaps been too dependent on my friends - and this more in a bad thing to have to listen and make new ones. Now that Sir decided you must his mother's important to the off - I'll never tell fame low. But included her paying her in the incorporating done will with horribly - I'm glad of your defence. I hope you're telling the truth and I appreciate you.
I credit you with honorable intentions not to break on the rules but your misconduct so many years it hard for you to reform - Tell Ella she's in postcard - can thanks brought you to a mental specialist? be examined -
I wish I could see you write 150 -