4 WEST 43RD STREET
NEW YORK

May 28, 1939.-

My dear Miss. Tarbell:

I have just finished reading your autobiography and I must write to tell you of the pleasure that you have given me. It is one of the best books of that kind that I have read in a long time - you tell your interesting story so simply and so well and you reveal your own personality so unobtrusively, as to make me love and admire you more than even. What a relief in this age of senseless noise and talk, when self advertisement and publicity seem to be the only motives of mankind.

Of course your descriptions of Gallabi were especially appreciated.

As you see I am in the country and Mrs. Du Bois is here too. If you are still in town it would give me great pleasure to call upon you.
As a matter of fact I am living within a few doors of you on 19th Street with a friend, but

The above is a letter address, as I am usually only there to sleep and I am in and out of town a good deal. But I always come here for my mail.

Hoping that I shall have the great privilege of seeing you,
Believe me,

Very sincerely yours,
Joseph W. Fowler. -
