

January 28, 1921.

Miss M. S. Scanlin,
120 East Nineteenth St.,
New York City.

Dear Miss Scanlin:

I have your letter of the 27th inst., telling me of Miss Tarbell's absence in the West, and that she is not expected to return before April.

I am enclosing a letter from the Manuscript Division of the Library of Congress to my brother, which I will be glad if you will put with my letter awaiting Miss Tarbell's return. I will also be much obliged if you can give me her address in the West, as I would like to write a short letter to her to find out if she would be in any way interested in considering my proposition.

Yours very truly,

Ray Curtis
