Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Much obliged for the check. I called at your office this morning as I came down town but you were not in and not immediately expected. I wanted to talk over the Doubleday-Page-McClure-Moffatt Yard situation and see what our best move is. Could you call on me on Monday, arranging an hour by 'phone — or to-morrow afternoon if it suits you better.

I had a call from Moffatt-Yard's counsel — Ira Bliss Stewart. They cannot do anything, of course, till we move. But I cautioned Mr. Stewart against blundering around in this matter.

Yours sincerely
Selden Bacon
