Dear Reinette Donnelly:

I never got your S O S.
What a shame that your agency should have been interfered with, shut down at this present moment. Can nothing be done about it?
And who was the inspector who complained about you? Was he a union labor agent, a relief agent or a public official?

It seems such a pity to have a fine independent undertaking of this sort closed down when it is doing good work.

I should be glad to know anything more about the matter that you care to tell me.

Affectionately

Miss Reinette Lovewell Donnelly
