Lincoln

April 17, 1930

My dear Mr. Hines:

I have your letter saying that you have secured a daguerreotype said to be of the father of Abraham Lincoln. I have never heard of such a picture, though I do not know why there should not have been one made. I should have to know where you got it - what its history was before I could give you any help. You might write to the Illinois Historical Society, Springfield, Illinois. They would be able to give you exact information, but you would have to tell them all that you now know about the picture.

Very truly yours
