

Delineator

BUTTERICK BUILDING

NEW YORK

OFFICE OF THE EDITOR

June 13th, 1928

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Here are some letters to you resulting from "Troubled Thoughts about Prohibition". Some also came addressed to the editor which I have answered with vim and gusto.

And I suppose you have seen a great deal of the newspaper comment which the article aroused.

I am more convinced than ever that it was a splendid thing to do.

Sincerely yours,

Oscar Graeve
Editor

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East 19th Street
New York City