

24 May
1902.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I feel sure that
the other "Runaway wife"
has much better manners
than this one. and
that you have long
ago heard from her
of our safe arrival
home. My husband
seemed to be as glad
to get me back as he was loathe to let me go - so the Phasant part of his connection with

it came ab the ind. !-
he did have such a good time. Perhaps I
need hardly tell you
this. You must have seen for yourself how much I enjoyed it all.
and I think you were
so good to take me in,
and give me your
own comfortable bed.
I shall never forget
it. + I am very grateful
with all good wishes
Very sincerely
Francis F. Cleveland.