Dearborn. We raising fowl as well as selling sunshine - raising Wheat - but this yr the wheat - hardly paid - & the latter - &
Selling in the office at 2 - listing & H. D. left of the pleasure pulling yr H about 380 acres he said a little shingling when we called it - learnt & asked him he sold it - Why we did sell it - We raised it - in fact 2 yrs ago - Yes sir - We had to hurt it - like sin - Dedicated - & run it - over the elevator line mill - & he pointed across the pickerel & a boy elevator & mile & road which it had just connected mile - the mileage we are milling - Went we have - but two days it put paved - & the people would like us - We sell it - to anyone
- & see & sleeve a new & entirely typical early american institution - the rural rural mile - makes you

His mind is a sensitive plate - every ray reaches that - is recorded & lives - food - When you raise your philosophy on the soil & humanity - you should afford - have a good deal about - that how one may feed all the people - that would also the food they should - Each person a picture of the new things that will exist to make the food supply - making it cheap to get - 2 & 1 dozen to get - Cheap scale production by machinery would do it - If we make every of things - abundance food will be cheap - so that all will have passion for the soil & by the food that is produced in the soil produce & getting from it the most healthy & pure food from near the surface & many kinds of food that price would be there - supply low it - just to suppose how the people - the people would come to when you produce great quantities & sell very cheap at a low price - so that He kept it till early summer. I heard him talk once & then he was worried - I can't bear anything He drinked then & unpleasant till summer season - drinks till - I expected He wanted "a house & inn in" he said not - a children - a many nurse a palace - no an American nurse with much unfitted. He has been utterly true to his interests a wife - but must not be put - Dear & like charming & pleasure in nature. Early & early summer never out in daytime & explains very well - & he collects engravings & enjoying much with the pictures drawings & etc & the new weeds Galleries & (unfinished) - & manipulation

Her fidelity - & the evil distance misbehavior - on the part not - the purse be found - it was the farmer not - the dealer in silver. He felt the gratefulness - the goodness - the deep happiness which came from devoted contact with loving things - and Redemption - Lazy Mallory - He was entirely satisfied to have them considered - always consistent.
In his own purposes - Helen - never drew into the intolerance & artificial living - so When he came to build the Millionaire's home it was Deerlick Mine he was born to be drive - not the city - He walked acres - sketching, read books - he understood Nature; He repelled the landscape gardener formality & copies & deceptions - a great error - meant going to the old creek - he enjoyed nature selfishly
