Affair of Poster

Dear Miss Tarbell

I am Mrs Fred^ck S. Chase of Waterbury, Connecticut; following Miss Ruutz Rees request I have brought down my poster. As you are not here I shall take it to the Latham Lithograph office in the Aeolian Bldg - 33 West 42nd St - and I shall leave it there for you to see at your commience - I had already seen Mr Lathrop in their Brooklyn office about the reproduction and practically told him I should send it to him to print. So if you like it everything is arranged excepting quantity - I told Miss R-R- that I would contribute the printing of the first 1000 to the State if she thought it worth it. (360.00 -) Every extra 1000 is $74.00 - or there about - Naturally less as numbers increase - 4

you would be sure to see any larger way. I should be glad if convenient, but I do not feel I could give any more money.

There is also some question as to age.

I am sorry not to see you.

Very Truly
E. P. Chase
