Once upon a time, many years ago, Allegheny College had a president. One score and five years ago, that president decided to set out on a new quest. At that time a regal council was convened by the court of Allegheny to appoint a new leader. The highest tribunal in the land ordained Lawrence Lee Pelletier as the sixteenth leader of the Kingdom upon the Hilltop. Since that time when all the people atop the Mount of Meadville heralded the corination of Dr. Pelletier, there have been more new structures built, more scutage raised, and more new citizens in the Land of Allegheny than ever before. But perhaps more importantly, Dr. Pelletier has touched the lives of many people. He has, for example, gone to hospitals to give the coveted Sheepskins to the infirmed and ailing. It is because of these acts of unselfish devotion to his kingdom, that we, the Editors and Staff of the Kaldron 1980 dedicate this manuscript to Dr. Lawrence Lee Pelletier, President of Allegheny College, 1956-1980.

"We are so bored!" was the cry often heard resounding from all corners of the Kingdom. Then one day, these criers banded together into a small tribe calling themselves Kaldron. This little band of people, in an effort to relieve the monotony found in the land of Allegheny, decided to create a chronicle of their dreams, stories, and fantasies. Herein lies the result of the trials and tribulations of this tribe of dedicated people who have, perhaps, filled their need for excitement . . . at least for the time being.

Student Life

Faces in the clouds
Are no longer movie stars,
Or singing idols.
They are classmates,
Friends.
Castles in the sky
Are able to be reached for,
And touched.
No longer something to be dreamed of,
But something to be worked for.
Faraway places,
Faraway goals,
Aren't so far away anymore.

Special Events

Once upon a term, fair meds and other sundry other gentle folk bid fare to books, their toil, their care, and sally forth to various and sundry special events. A diverse people be we, and diverse be our events. Minstrels, jongleurs, dance troops; troubadors, mimes and fools, play round as the meade flows and laughter peals. For a watch, a night span or long as a fortnight the quest is not for booklore; the quest is for joy, for cup-mates; deepening of the soul and peace in the heart. Ponder anew where we have lept after our quest.

Clubs & Organizations

Throughout the ages, on the Mount of Meadville, the good citizens would, from time to time, organize to share their lives with each other as well as the rest of the townspeople. As the planting seasons passed, and the seasons of snow came and went, these hardy folks began calling themselves "clubs" and "organizations." These actors and actresses would often perform for, and enrich, the masses. They would act, sing, dance, display their crafts, and educate the folk in the town of Allegheny and the region known as Meadville. These clubs and organizations brought joy into the lives of young and old, and commoner alike. Without these players, life in Allegheny would be dull indeed.

Greeks

Once upon a time, not enough years ago, there was a group of craftsmen and maidens who all had a desire to unite and fulfill common goals. Sadly, the citizens of this land had no means through which to join together into one. That is, until one day, Fratos, the Bearer of Brotherhood, appeared to these townspeople. He showed them the way to join together and rule themselves. The results of the labours of Fratos, still visible today, soon came to be known as Sororities and Fraternities. And it came to pass that these folks, although from many parts of the land, came to be known as the Greeks in the Kingdom. DG

Sports

As each new season rolls around
There are many athletes to be found.
Practicing, playing,
and also training
They can be seen even when it's raining.
Struggling at the beginning of a season
Because there is a special reason.
When the season's over and done
The best have proven that they are number one!

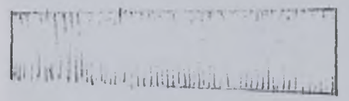
Seniors and Faculty



As with any kingdom within the recesses of our dreams, there must be a king, his wizards and the leaders for the townspeople. The King has a large and diverse court known as the Wizards of Academia. Were it not for these mystical men and women, the fair citizens up on the hilltop would sally forth into the Land of Reality ill-prepared to joust with the dragon and the cyclops. The seers mystically transform the peons into great thinkers. The leaders of the Kingdom are those people who have had the spells of the Wizards cast upon them for sixteen seasons. The people, who have endured the hurt, as well as the joys, put upon them by the Sorcerers, lead the citizens of Allegheny to greater levels of confidence. This makes the pains less painful, the joys more rewarding, and for this, the people throughout the land are very grateful.

The Varden Portrait

For some people, a diploma is not enough.

Some people feel that there should be more to graduation. More than just a diploma. A timeless commemorative of your graduation is the Varden portrait.

Your Varden portrait will speak with distinction. For over 30 years, the name Varden has meant the ultimate in portraiture. When you graduate, don't settle for less.

Varden STUDIOS INC.

For many years, longer than we have been here, the Kaldron has recorded each year of Allegheny's history. This year is no different. With each year, however, something new is tried. This year is, of course, no different. We apologize for any omissions that may have been made although it was not intentional.

This yearbook has been a combination of many joys and much more frustration. Karen was always the mainstaff of the book. She kept us going as times got tough, and tried to stay sane at dead line time. Dan was hilarious and made us laugh when we were ready to cry. Sue brought in the pictures but unfortunately is thinking of driving a truck for the rest of her life. Go to it Sam! To Lisa we owe many thanks to her art work and her own art staff. They have given us dreams that we can only imagine. Anne gave us the money that made the Kaldron possible and I tried to keep everyone sane by proving my insanity. A special thanks goes to Tim Ward, our Hunter representative, for putting up with a group like us and also to Helen and Ed who put up with much more abuse than they had to. But we extend a special thanks to you who made our year possible. Kris

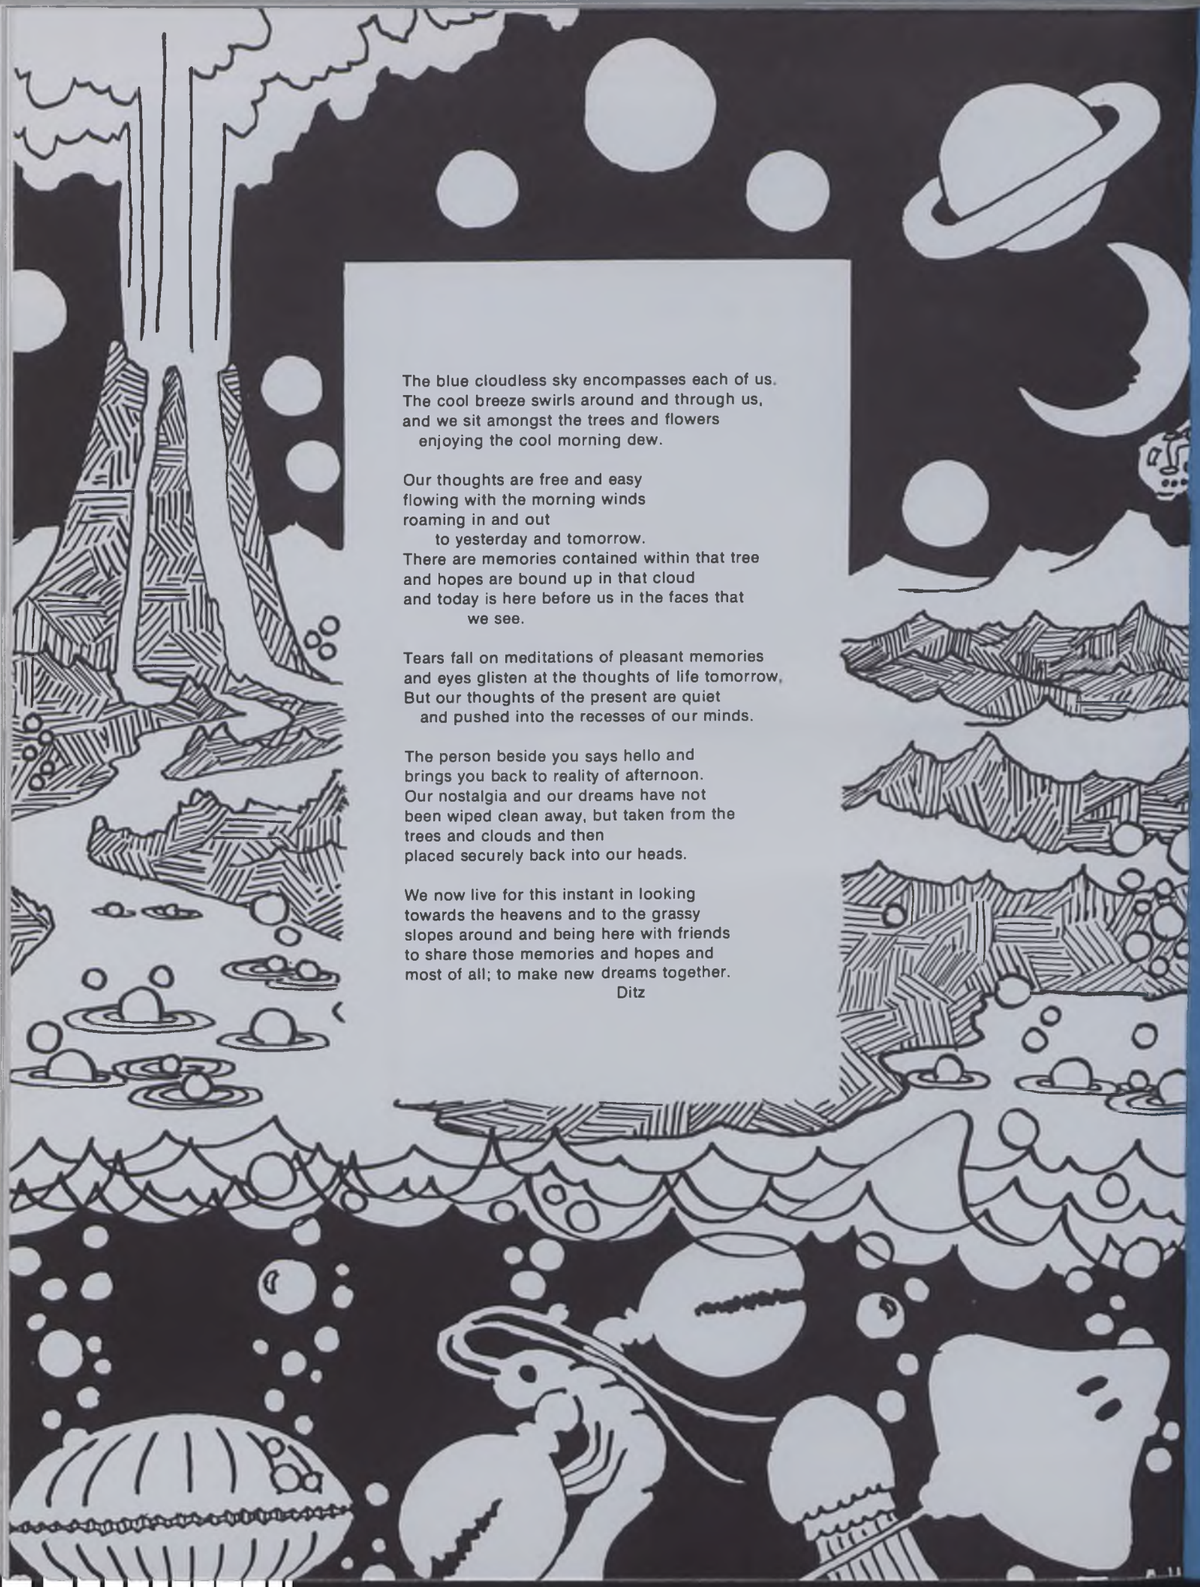
Special Thanks: to Edward Lukasik for putting up with our boredom.



The blue cloudless sky encompasses each of us.
The cool breeze swirls around and through us,
and we sit amongst the trees and flowers enjoying the cool morning dew.

Our thoughts are free and easy flowing with the morning winds roaming in and out
to yesterday and tomorrow.
There are memories contained within that tree and hopes are bound up in that cloud and today is here before us in the faces that we see.

Tears fall on meditations of pleasant memories
and eyes glisten at the thoughts of life tomorrow,
But our thoughts of the present are quiet and pushed into the recesses of our minds.

The person beside you says hello and brings you back to reality of afternoon.
Our nostalgia and our dreams have not been wiped clean away, but taken from the trees and clouds and then placed securely back into our heads.

We now live for this instant in looking towards the heavens and to the grassy slopes around and being here with friends to share those memories and hopes and most of all; to make new dreams together.

Ditz
