Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell;

The following telegram has just gone to Senator Beveridge:

"Makes only men's wear woolens and worsteds.
Domestic production refers to men's wear
only. -S.W.Downer."

The first telegram was perhaps not so warlike as you and he would have liked, but was the best I could get. I mailed him yesterday a copy of the annual statement of the American Woolen Company issued last December. He may be able to get something from that, although I suppose the facts he wants are those that are not in print.

Yours very truly,

Susan W. Downer
