November 22, 1935

Dear Mr. Swope:

The kindness of your letter of November 18th is all out of proportion to the value of my little article on Neighborliness. I have been disturbed because I was doing nothing for this year's campaign for Human Needs. If what I wrote is of any service I am happy about it. But I am quite sure the service is not great enough to deserve so kind a letter from you.

Very sincerely

Mr. Gerard Swope
