Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
McClure Newspaper Syndicate,
575 Fourth Avenue,
New York City, N.Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have not received your reply to my recent letter to you asking if you would contribute some editorial articles to the PUBLIC LEDGER, and I assume my letter has not had time to reach you.

In the event you can fall in with my suggestion, or desire to make further inquiries, will you kindly write directly to Mr. John J. Spurgeon, at the Public Ledger Office here in Philadelphia. I must be away for two weeks or more and the articles would naturally come to him in any event. I hope it will be possible for you to comply with my request.

With regards,

Sincerely yours,

Edward G. Lowry
