My dear Miss Tarbell:

Mr. Moore is very anxious to have an article on Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland in Delineator and he wonders if you will do it for us. In fact, he would appreciate it very much if you would.

This would necessitate, of course, an interview with Governor Ritchie. Mr. Moore also says, if it would help you, we could get a lot of intimate information about the Governor from Frank Kent of the Baltimore Sun.

Mr. Moore says Governor Ritchie has a wonderful record. He is sane, direct and fearless and a leading candidate for the Democratic nomination for President. But he doesn't necessarily want the article to have too political a flavor.

Will you let me know if I may see you about this?

Very sincerely,

Oscar Graeve
