Dear Madam:

We acknowledge and thank you for your favor of January 7 advising us that while you cannot afford the original manuscript of Shannon's volumes you would be interested in the two volume, published edition. This publication, because of its very limited interest was published in the small edition of 475 copies, the majority of which were subscribed for prior to publication. In addition to the prepublication orders we published a few extra copies of which we only have six sets left. We would be glad to supply one of these to you as per enclosed circular and will hold one of the set aside pending favor of your reply.

Respectfully yours,

THE ARTHUR H. CLARK COMPANY
