Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th St.,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I know you wrote us you did not want any more dates to connect with the engagement at Birmingham on March 22nd, but I am writing to know if you won't grant us a special favor by filling a date at the Alabama College for Women at Montevallo, Ala. only a short distance from Birmingham in connection with your trip to Birmingham. We had Miss Hurst booked at this college for March 19th but she is ill and unable to fill her engagements and the manager at Alabama College, Mr. C. B. Richmond, has just written us that you would be a satisfactory substitute for Miss Hurst. We don't seem to have any other speaker on our list who would be a satisfactory substitute, so we will greatly appreciate it if you will fill this date, for which the fee is $300.00. You could take this date on the same terms as the Birmingham date which would make the trip worthwhile financially.

If it would suit you much better we could probably get the Birmingham committee to move their date up to Monday evening, March 21st. The college at Montevallo usually insist on having all of their attractions on Saturday evenings, in order not to conflict with their class work, so I don't think we could get them to change although if you can't do it any other time I could see if I could not get them to take you on Monday evening, March 21st, and then the Birmingham date could stand.

Please let me hear from you by first mail or wire if you can grant us this special favor, and greatly oblige

Very sincerely yours,

Russell Bridges
