Miss Ida Minerva Tarbell,

Dear Sir:

Enclosed herewith is the first draft of the Preface, Introduction and one of the chapters - Wet View - of my forthcoming book, "Prohibition Still at its Worst", together with the Table of Contents. The text is self-explanatory.

The first sentence of the Introduction explains the points it is designed to meet. I expect to deal with other phases in succeeding chapters, as outlined in the Table of Contents. I shall wish to send you copies of the Wet View in each of these chapters, in the hope that you will make suggestions for strengthening it, and I should be grateful if you would read and return the enclosed draft with your marginal or other comment to this end.

Yours very sincerely,

Irving Fisher
