Mr. Elmer J. Kneale
Springfield, Illinois

Dear Mr. Kneale:

I have your invitation to visit Springfield the coming fall or winter as the guest of the Mid-Day Luncheon Club. How much I should like to do it. At the moment I cannot do more than to say that if I see the time a little later in the season I will let you know and if it is a convenient time to you I shall be only too glad to accept the invitation with which you honor me.

I remember visiting your Club a number of years ago and I know how many interesting and distinguished guests you have had. I should of course be proud to go to you if I can arrange it.

As I say I will let you know if I see a chance of my being in the west in the winter.

Very sincerely yours
