

Readers Digest:

A talk on evolution in the changes in dress might be something of the almost tragic struggle over gloves - to wear or not to wear for women. Low necked dresses.

(Quote my Kansas City experiment at the Knife and Fork Club.)

And use this Gamlin Garland episode in notes attached, told at P & B dinner. Various anecdotes could be added. Also, might tell of the experience of my talk with Jane Addams on dress.