Dear Miss Tarbell:

Your excellent article, published in the N.Y. Times in support of Chautauqua, I heartily second and trust some worthy people may make it secure.

I was a graduate, also my younger sister Lavinia, of C. L. S. C. at Chautauqua in 1888, receiving my diploma from Dr. John Vincent and Rev. Edward Everett Hale. I have the books of C. L. S. C. course yet in my library. I took the course and graduated in it, ten years after I graduated from my Hunter College of N.Y. City.

It has truly been a piece to many earnest students, who should rally our efforts entirely.

Since then, I have taken many courses of study and lately I have joined my World Affairs Institutes in our A.W.A. of which I am a Charter member and a resident of Club house for 5 years.
I sincerely trust that your appeal may prevail and Chautauqua may be firmly established. Sincerely
(Ima) Anna H. Church
