Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

It is suggested that you should make some mention in your articles that William Whitman is building a fine new mill at Lawrence for the manufacture of merino yarn. Merino yarn is made of wool and cotton and the duty on yarn of this kind is the same as on yarn made of all wool; that is, the cotton in the yarn is taxed the same as if it were wool.

Yours very truly,

Susan W. Downer
