

My dear Miss Tarbell:

It was with the greatest regret and a sense of deep personal loss that I learned of your sorrow. You can well understand that my feeling for you is of the tenderest for I have so recently

Old
Lynne, Conn. Sept. 22, 1917.

been called upon to pass through the same experience. I am so sorry it had to come to you, and now I learn from some Baltimore friends that you have been in the Hospital. A dear friend, Belle and I shall send you all the good thoughts & wishes for strength & courage that can come from friendship and affection.
Yours very sincerely
