

October 18, 1921

Mr. S. E. Cox,
Freewater, Ore.

My dear Mr. Cox:

Indeed, I do remember the man that talked with me at the hotel in Pawhuska. I have often thought of you, and while I don't know that I have been able to do anything to spread on the message which you gave me, I have never forgotten it.

I quite agree with you that it is not temporary relief that is necessary, that it is such a reorganization of our life and activities as will give to each the share he honestly earns - no more and no less. After all, you are quite right - it is a question of a choice between serving God or Mammon.

I hope you will keep up your preaching and be able to do it without bitterness of heart.

Very sincerely yours,