

Saturday,

January 6th
(1940)

My dear Miss Terbell:

Aunt Amanda Caldwell
Niece of Winton, Jane Hastings, is very desirous of having you autograph ^{the} her copy of "All in the Day's Work".

I was in Winton town
two weeks ago and volunteered to act as go-between since

I know that we lived fairly near and used the same book shop.

I hope you will not think this an intrusion, and that I may telephone you later, and pick up the book - and the signature.

Sincerely yours,

Helen Deane
