Dear Mrs. Burr:

Lest you may not have seen Alfred Smiley's reminscences of Booth I am enclosing a copy. I have suggested to Miss Hanna that she ought to try and get a copy of this book for the library. Probably could be found in Franklin in somebody's attic.

I am just getting around to answering Mr. Budke's and Mr. Steele's recent letters both interesting - the Budke digest most important of anything we have had on the Dramatic Oil Company.

Faithfully yours
