

172 ELM STREET, OBERLIN, OHIO.

JULY 26, 1909.

My dear Miss Tarbell,

I shall be very glad to give you any information in my power. I think that all the things for which you ask can easily be found. There is a large amount of material in the secretary's office, consisting for the most part of early trustee records, which has lately been put in order and classified. It contains much matter of the same sort which has never been drawn upon for publication. If I find anything which seems likely to be of interest, I may take the liberty of adding it on the chance of its being useful.

I have lately been ill and am still unable to work, but I think I can send you the material you wish in two or three days.

Yours cordially,

Walter Dicken.
