My dearest Ida Farber

I St. has cheered me to think you can come

but I am sorry to know you're sick. I for I am certain you stay all the strength you have to its almost limit.

I am replying at once to let us plan the easiest way for you. Could you come here earlier than the 15th and go from Here to Rochester, this is truly a house! Great large bed; your own bath, breakfast-in-bed in red 7:00 and as there are no "spare rooms", you could come any time, the H.Y.-sleeper leaves you here about 7 A.M. If you could do this, let me know what time to Meet you and I'll come in a car, a warm taxi. It is about an hour and 3/4 from Rochester here. Anyway you do. R. R. Trolley or mo.

You'll have neither here. We'll have neither here and you could stay in bed. I think until 7:30. There's a train through there eleven fifteen A.M. which I think makes co.
The last I'll look this up. The morning mail brought us a delightful letter from David Fairchild from Paris. He is a rare man and has so many sides to him, we're dread the most interesting one that loses quiet simplicity and calmness. Yours with affection.
