Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Miss Gilson has just been called 233 Bowm an St
to Wooster this morning because of the illness of her mother, and has asked me to reply to your letter to her asking for the names of the men in the National Lamp Company whom you met at Nela Park.

Upon inquiry among the members of our staff, I am told that the most expeditious way of getting the names you want would be to write to Mr. A. Jackson Marshall, Secretary, 29 East 39th Street.

I wish I might be of more help to you, but shall call this to Miss Gilson's attention again when she returns. She may then remember the names of the people to whom you refer.

Sincerely yours,

Lucille Pace

Secretary to Miss Gilson.
