

THOS. J. WATSON
590 MADISON AVENUE
NEW YORK

January 4, 1940

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I have now returned to the City and have asked my secretary to arrange an appointment with you for Friday of this week, at 3:30 P. M.

I have also noted your letter regarding a contribution for the Foreign Language Information Service and will be very glad to discuss this matter with you when you call.

With my best wishes for the New Year,

I remain

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'T. J. Watson', written in a cursive style with a large loop at the end.
