Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th St.,
New York City

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am presumptuous enough to send to you in this mail a volume from your pen which I greatly esteem. I am doing so in the happy hope that you will write your name, and perhaps something else in it for me.

May I be honored by having you do so?

A stamped envelope for the return of the book is enclosed.

Sincerely and gratefully yours,

F. H. Green,

Headmaster.
