

March 17, 1934

My dear Mr. Javits:

I want to thank you for the copy of your Cleveland address, "Industry's Right to a Fair Return." It is a satisfaction to me to find someone writing with authority and good sense on the constructive work of the Trade Associations. Of course there is nobody so far as I know so competent to do this as you. Your book, "Business and the Public Interest" has become one of my hand books. I have neglected more than one impulse to tell you how valuable a piece of work it seemed to me. S

I hope one of these days I may have a chance to talk with you about these things. I shall appreciate your calling my attention to anything that you may write.

Very truly yours

Mr. Benjamin A. Javits
165 Broadway
New York City