Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you for letting us keep your manuscript for Mr. Gould. Three of us have read it and found it very interesting. However, it does seem definitely to be book material.

Have you thought about writing a summing up on the progress the world is making (if any)? You have such a remarkable perspective on what has been going on and what has been accomplished these many years. Perhaps your last chapters will discuss this and I for one would be very much interested.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Mary C. Cookman
