Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth St.,
New York City

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Mr. Gilmore has read your letter of March 22 and advises it will be satisfactory for you to use the statement quoted in the second paragraph.

In reference to the small number of aged employees who were given work which their age permitted them to do, there are a few cases where the employees were given jobs as watchmen, firemen or janitors when they were too old to fill their regular positions. This phase is covered in our code.

Very truly yours,

(Miss) Udelaine E. Reid
