

My dear Miss Tarbell, May 2nd 1908

I read with painful interest the list of officers of the new organization formed to prevent women from getting the opportunity to do their full duty, and rejoiced to observe that your name is not among them.

To have the ablest woman writer in America enlisted to help keep women silent would, indeed, be grotesque!

Your puzzled admirer
Florence Keller