DICTATED BY CHT

28 BEACON STREET, BOSTON. Aug. 23, 1911

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am glad to have your letter of Aug. 21. Unless you find that notes are to be added we can undoubtedly do everything here.

I think your attention was called to the list of requirements. In fact, I find a letter saying that I sent you a list of the requirements for College Entrance in English, but that may not have been specific enough for your purpose. As a matter of fact, I think that what you have done is better than what the College Entrance Requirement Committee has specified, and I presume that a good many schools would prefer your book just as it stands, if they were left to their own judgment, but when you have a definite prescription like this the only thing to do seems to be to fill it.

I shall ask Mr. Nutter, who has joined our editorial department recently, to take charge of any further details connected with this work, so that if you have letters from him you will know what it means.

Sincerely yours,
C. H. Thurber

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
New York City.
